

AMERICANWAY

TRENDS FOR THE MODERN TRAVELER

SAVING YOUR SAVINGS

Retirement?
Yes, It's Still Possible

ROAD AND TRACK

Testing Today's Hottest Cars

SEATTLE SHOWDOWN

Old Hip Vs. New Hip

LET'S MAKE A DEAL

Improve Your Negotiating Skills

BELGIAN BREWSKIS

From Lagers To Lambics

HOTEL HOT SPOT

OOH LA ZAZA!

DALLAS
DOES IT AGAIN

Wanted: hard-working, fun-loving, interesting souls to enjoy Dallas' first upscale boutique hotel. With a property name like ZAZA and 13 themed suites, including Shag-a-delic, Metropolitan, Zen, and Out of Africa, don't doubt that this place rocks. The 146 "regular" guest rooms are anything but, with up to 600 square feet of imaginative space, separate sitting areas, high-speed Internet access, and oft-needed office supplies for the business traveler. ZaZa sits in the heart of trendy Uptown, among a plethora of lively shops, bars, and restaurants. The icing on the cake? Celebrity chef Stephan Pyles is behind the hotel's daring Dragonfly restaurant, serving up Mediterranean cuisine with Asian influences and a dash of theatrical flair. It's ZaZadelic, baby. From $195. (800) 597-8399, www.hotelzaza.com — JANET THOMAS

