“ZAZASAURUS” TAKES OVER LOBBY OF HOUSTON’S HOTEL ZAZA

“Texas Triassic Tour” Room Package Celebrates Houston Museum of Natural Science’s New World-Class Paleontology Hall

HOUSTON, Texas – Museum enthusiasts far and wide looking to embark on a prehistoric safari at Houston Museum of Natural Science’s (HMNS) newly opened Paleontology Hall now have a place to rest their bones, indulge their inner carnivore, and get a closer look at a “ZaZasaurus” before or after they visit the permanent exhibition.

“We couldn’t be more excited for our neighbors at the Houston Museum of Natural Science on the opening of this truly innovative paleontology hall and permanent exhibition – it’s just something we had to sink our teeth into at Hotel ZaZa,” said Kyra Coots, Director of eMarketing and Public Relations for the hotel.

When guests arrive at Hotel ZaZa, they can immediately begin their journey into the Dinosaur Age as they are greeted by ZaZa’s newest guest, a 6-foot long Pachycephalosaurus who has checked-in to the lobby for a three-month stay. If that’s not enough, dino aficionados can book Hotel ZaZa’s “Texas Triassic Tour” room package, which includes an overnight stay, two tickets to the HMNS exhibition and dinner for two in Monarch Bistro with a bottle of house wine. In addition, guests can enjoy complimentary valet parking and Internet access.

“Monarch Bistro couldn’t help but take a bite out of the action and has created a Triassic-themed menu for both package guests and the general public,” said Coots. “It is serving up House-Smoked Meat & Bones, a Forest Earth Salad and Seared Hyperoglyphe Antarctica along with other paleo fare.”

And when the safari adventure leaves museum-goers tired and achy, Hotel ZaZa’s ZaSpa has just the right fix with its “Preserve Your Skeleton” spa experiences. The Melt Your Bones Swedish massage would leave even a Tyrannosaurus refreshed and revitalized. Or, the Scrub Your Scales super sea salt scrub and the Triassic Toes Pedicure will leave scaly skin and untamed toes feeling fresh and vibrant.

“Texas Triassic Tour” room package rates start at just $249 and the spa add-on treatments are available starting at $60 for the pedicure and $89 for the massages.
